DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

On September 26, 2018, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury that was caused by an influenza vaccination in her left deltoid on September 3, 2016. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 8, 2019, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for left shoulder injury. On February 13, 2020, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $102,960.82, representing $102,500.00 for Petitioner’s pain and suffering and $460.82 representing Petitioner’s out-of-pocket medical expenses. Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. at 2.

<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I am required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims’ website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $102,960.82, representing $102,500.00 for Petitioner's pain and suffering and $460.82 representing Petitioner's unreimbursable expenses in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>3</sup> suffering, and $460.82 representative of out-of-pocket medical expenses. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner is entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

III. Form of the Award

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment, as described below, and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following: A lump sum payment of $102,960.82 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.<sup>2</sup> Petitioner agrees.

<sup>2</sup> Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering, and the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief.
